Mysore, 12th October 1911

From,

A Mahadeva Sastri Esq, B A,
Curator Govt Oriental Library, Mysore

To

The Inspector General of Education in Mysore

Sir,

The Arthasastra of Chanakya, published in the Sanskrit section of the Oriental Library Series, is a rare work throwing light on the political and social condition of the Hindus of the 3rd and 4th centuries before the Christian era, and as such it has been in great demand among the scholars in India and Europe engaged in historical investigation Owing to its peculiar and sometimes archaic diction, it was thought that an explanatory gloss would be useful to the readers Accordingly Mr R Shama Sastry prepared an English translation of the work and published it in parts in the monthly Magazines, -- (1) the Mysore Review and (2) the Indian Antiquary There is a great demand for the translation but it cannot be now had in a complete form, as the numbers of the Mysore Review in which it appeared have gone out of print I beg therefore to submit that the translation may be reprinted in the Government Branch Press and published as a volume in the Library Series The translator, Mr R Shama Sastry, has consented to this

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Sd) A Mahadeva Sastry
